

Messaging and Supply Meeting January

Urban Renewal

- Election is coming up in March
- Brigetta passed out endorsement forms

Upcoming City Council Meeting and Work Session

- New council will be starting
- It will be a good opportunity to testify on home matters
- Shawn will use public comment to provide shelter update
- Upcoming work session includes review of strategic plan

Downtown Advisory Meetings

- Good opportunity to testify about home matters and urban renewal

Connecting with HCDAB

- Brigetta will reach out to Kent and Kenny of HCDAB to invite them to our meetings

Mobile Homes

- Currently no protections for mobile home parks
- WNHS will begin to provide services related to mobile homes
- Rika will find out number of mobile home parks in Benton County
- OSU professor Katherine MacTavish studies mobile home policy issues, could be a resource

Planning Commission Tiny Home Public Hearing

- Public Hearing will be held Feb 6th
- Regulations related to tiny homes as primary dwellings and ADUs (not tiny home villages)
- Design regulations (eg color matching) primary focus
- Good advocacy opportunity
- Rika/Rebecca will send out a mailchimp to Home Matters

HOAC Restructuring

- Minimal progress
- Multnomah County model is a possibility
 - Executive board with decision making power and larger service group provides recommendations

Meet with multiple groups

- There are many different groups that are working on local housing issues
- It would be beneficial if groups could collaborate and talk about priorities
- Nicole will work on setting up a meeting
- Possible groups to include
 - Methodist Church
 - Sustainability Coalition
 - League of Women's voters
 - Unitarian Church
- Wait until after Urban Renewal election
